Uncle Sam Says

Independence is the cornerstone upon which this country was built. And thrift is the cornerstone upon which Americans are building future financial independence. That cornerstone provides the slogan for the U. S. Savings Bonds Campaign, May 15-July 4, which is: "Save For Your Independence." Everyone has something to save for, whether it be for a home, for retirement, to educate your children, or for a glorious vacation trip. With the determination to "Save in 1950 for 1960" you will be well on the way to financial independence. You will receive $4 for every $3 invested within ten short years.

CLOVER HILL CLUB HAD MEETING MONDAY

The Clover Hill Club met Monday in an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. W. P. Gills, with Mrs. Gills and Mrs. Rebecca Shanks as joint hostesses.
Demonstration on Sunday dinners prepared ahead of time was given by Mrs. Frances Conner and Mrs. Vernon Torrence. Lunch was served at one o'clock. The long dining table, which seated twelve, was centered with an arrangement of old fashioned hyacinths and tall candelabra. Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Anderson were guests of the club. The next meeting will be held April 24 with Mrs. D. E. Torrence.

High School Chatter

Good evening, Mr. and Mrs. American. Here is a brief resume of the A. H. S. news as seen from here.

Baseball once again takes the spotlight at A. H. S. played the first game of the season against Amherst Tuesday. The team plays away from home Friday afternoon, against Concord. The first home game of the season will be played Tuesday, April 4.

The Seniors held try-outs for the senior play Tuesday of this week. The cast has not been announced yet, but everyone is sure that a fine cast was chosen.

The last of the annual material reached the publishers by March 22. Everyone anticipates getting a copy o' the annual. One hears it is to be one of the best in the history of the school. This reporter is not sure of that but is sure of one thing- much work went into the preparation of the annual. If you have not ordered your copy you had better hurry to order it. One who wishes to secure an annual may do so by contacting Harry Lawson, Dick Marks or Joyce Christian.

The 8th grade gave a short play in chapel two weeks ago, which everyone greatly enjoyed. Characters in the play were the teachers of A. H. S. They were portrayed as seen by high school students.

We are glad to see many of the teachers and pupils back at school after being out with an attack of flu. Among the teachers were Mr. Kerr, Mrs. Gilbert and Miss Allen.

A sure sign of spring—the tennis courts are crowded everyday. A. H. S. boasts a good group of tennis players.

A group of 15 Seniors are to be guests of honor at a banquet Friday night at the school cafeteria.

Several weeks ago a group of Seniors were quite thrilled at having their picture taken in front of the McLean House by a photographer from a well-known magazine. The pictures will be published next month to illustrate an article about the Appomattox Surrender Ground.

The home economic girls had charge of chapel Wednesday.

Play safe—drive carefully.
